Boost your career, Joins us!

MCA BENELUX, part of the international operating MCA GROUPE, is a High-Tech Engineering consulting company who supports key industrial players in the field of Industry. With our international renowned engineering teams, we offer real value added technical and innovative solutions to our clients.

For over 10 years, the company's 250 employees support our partners in achieving their goals by providing value added services on their projects. Our ambition is to become a key-actor in High-Tech Engineering Consulting in sectors such as Energy, Industry, Transport and Pharmaceutics.

Are you up for this great challenge? Boost your career and join MCA BENELUX to be part of a real business project.

Due to our strong growth in the Benelux, we are looking for:

INDUSTRIALISATION PROJECT ENGINEER

JOB CONTENT

Working with the biggest industrials in Belgium in the transport department, you will be in charge of:

- Managing the industrialisation of new products and / or installing a new production line (machining, assembling, testing...)
- Analysing and defining which investment would be necessary to improve the production capacity with new means of production
- Completing the on-going industrialisation to achieve the objectives in quality, delays and costs.
- Being the production focal point to discuss with Engineering, Quality, Supply Chain, ...
- Realizing different works to support the production

YOUR PROFILE:

- Mechanical engineer with good knowledge in machining and/or assembling
- Knowledge of : fabrication process, lean manufacturing, production process, supply chain
- Languages: French and / or Dutch fluent, English is a plus

You’re willing to work in a young and very dynamic company, which provides a personalized feedback and career evolutions?

Send your application to nquervet@mca-benelux.be